ABOUT US

MKPM RV Institute of Legal Studies

Rashtreeya Sikshana Samithi Trust (RSST), established in 1940 by Sri Sivananda Sharmaji, has grown from a humble beginning with six students into a renowned educational organization with 28 institutions, over 3,000 staff members, and nearly 29,000 students.

With a vision to strengthen legal education in response to evolving legal challenges, RSST founded the RV Institute of Legal Studies in 2018, later renamed M K Panduranga Setty Memorial RV Institute of Legal Studies (MKPM RVILS) in honour of Dr. M.K. Panduranga Setty in 2024. Affiliated with Karnataka State Law University, Hubballi, and approved by the Bar Council of India, the institution offers integrated B.A.LL.B., B.B.A.LL.B., B.Com LL.B., and 3-year LL.B. programmes.

MKPM RVILS is committed to providing quality legal education and holistic development through moot courts, ADR and trial advocacy competitions, Model UN, and academic initiatives such as the peer-reviewed RV Law Journal and the Nyaya Darpana Lecture Series.

Vakeelara Vaahini

Vakeelara Vaahini is a monthly bilingual legal magazine published in Kannada and English by a collective of experienced advocates committed to promoting legal awareness, professional excellence, and informed public discourse. Edited by Mr. Prashanth Chandra S N (Editor-in-Chief) and Dr. D. M. Hegde (Editor & Publisher), the magazine serves as a vibrant platform for the legal community.

Since August 2021, Vakeelara Vaahini features insightful contributions from senior advocates, retired judges, academicians, legal experts, and law students, offering diverse perspectives on contemporary legal issues. With wide print and digital circulation, it reaches Bar Associations, Judicial Academies, law institutions, courts, and members of the judiciary across the State.

Beyond publication, the magazine actively organizes seminars, workshops, and interactive sessions to enhance legal awareness and professional development, benefiting students, practitioners, and the public

The Symposium

International Women's Day represents resilience, progress, and the ongoing pursuit of gender equality. The 2026 theme, "Give to Gain," emphasizes that meaningful societal growth arises through inclusion, dignity, and empowerment.

The State Level Symposium on "Women in Changing Times: Legal Responses to Contemporary Challenges" explores how evolving legal frameworks respond to the changing realities faced by women amid technological, socio-economic, and constitutional developments. Recognizing law as a tool for social transformation, the symposium highlights the role of legal systems in ensuring protection, equality, and justice.

Bringing together academicians, legal professionals, policymakers, research scholars, and students, the symposium aims to foster meaningful dialogue on gender justice and contemporary legal responses.

Objectives of the Symposium

- To analyze emerging legal challenges affecting women in contemporary society
- To examine the effectiveness of existing legal and institutional frameworks
- To encourage scholarly discussion on gender justice and constitutional values
- To promote reform-oriented dialogue at the state level
- To embody the spirit of "Give to Gain" through academic collaboration

Expected Outcomes

- Strengthened academic and policy dialogue on gender justice
- Identification of gaps in existing legal frameworks
- Recommendations for legal and institutional reforms
- Enhanced awareness among stakeholders on contemporary gender issues

Participants

- Academicians and Researchers
- Advocates and Legal Practitioners
- Policymakers and Civil Society Members
- Research Scholars and Students

Participants can be from Law, Political Science, Sociology, Public Administration, Economics, Social Work, Psychology, Women's Studies, and Management / Commerce departments.

Panel Discussion

A panel discussion will be organized as part of the Symposium on Women in Changing Times: Legal Responses to Contemporary Challenges, bringing together eminent legal experts, academicians, and practitioners. The session will deliberate on emerging issues affecting women and the evolving legal frameworks addressing them. It will provide a platform for critical dialogue, diverse perspectives, and practical insights. The discussion aims to foster informed understanding and inspire meaningful legal and social reform.

Call for Papers

Scholars, academicians, practitioners, research scholars, and students are encouraged to contribute papers addressing contemporary legal and policy issues affecting women. Submissions may broadly relate to (but are not limited to):
